

WORDS AND MUSIC BY RAYMOND A. BROWNE,
— COMPOSER OF —
"The Lass from the County Mayo"
ETC., ETC.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH,
SUNDAY, DEC. 23, 1900.
PUBLISHED BY SOL. BLOOM, CHICAGO.

Ireland, I Love You, Acushla Machree!

Words and Music by RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

Composer of "The Lass from the County Mayo," and all the successful Irish songs.

Moderato.

Intro.

1 Far o'er the sea there's a lit - tle green is - land, Ire - land, 'tis called, 'tis a
2. Somehow the skies of old E - rin seem blu - er. Some-how her mead - ows and sweet name to me; And while I live it will al - ways be my land dales are more fair; Some-how the hearts of her chil - dren are tru - er;

A little quicker.

Tho' man - y miles from its shores I may be. Home of my child - hood, I'll Some-how my hap pi-ness seems to be there. Ah! dear old isle, there's one

A tempo.

think of you ev - er; You're in my thoughts ev - 'ry night, ev - 'ry day, And like a heart that will love you Al - ways and ev - er, dear gem of the sea, For by the sweet-heart I'll see a - gain nev - er My heart is with you, so far, far a - way stars that look down from a - bove you, Ire - land, I love you, A cush - la Ma - chree!

CHORUS.

Ire - land, I love you, A - cush - la Ma - chree!..... And tho' your shores I may nev - er - more see,..... Al - ways will you be re - mem-bered by me— Ire - land, I love you, A - cush - la Ma - chree!